The purpose of the conflict of interest policy is to protect the Chamber's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer or director of the Chamber or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal law governing conflict of interest applicable to non-profit and charitable organizations.

3) A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Chamber is negotiating a transaction or arrangement. Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial. A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. After exercising due diligence, the Board of Directors or committee shall determine whether the Chamber can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the Board of Directors or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Chamber’s best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination, the Board of Directors or committee shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

d) Violations of the Conflict of Interest Policy. If the Board of Directors or committee has reasonable cause to believe a director, officer or committee member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the director, officer or committee member of the basis for such belief and afford the director, officer or committee member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If, after hearing the director, officer or committee member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the Board of Directors or committee determines the director, officer or committee member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

Section 4: RECORDS OF PROCEEDINGS
